

HOOVER-BULLA CEMETERY

Township--Wayne/Richmond- Co. Mp. Co-ord.--640E/140N/S
NW Sect. 28

Status: Active Condition in 1991: Well kept, fenced, locked gate.

Location--South of Sylvan Nook Drive, east of U. S. 27, north end of Richmond.

Directions--From U. S. 27 (Chester Blvd.), go east on Sylvan Nook Drive. Entrance is at the gate on the south side, at the dip in the road, after going around the curve.
Gate is locked, but a path around the gate leads to the cemetery, about 500 feet from the road.

Cemetery Governing Body: Hoover-Bulla families.

Location of Cemetery Records: Mrs. Griswold
1601 Sylvan Nook Drive
Richmond, IN 47374
(317) 962-0001

Lot Purchase Contact: As above-for family and friends only.

Contact-to Open or Close Grave: As above.

Inscription Listing: Beverly Yount-Volume I-P -1968

Brief History & Information: Located approximately 1/2 way between the Hoover and Bulla Homesteads. Bulla at 1601 Sylvan Nook and Hoover-southeast, across from the water works plant building.

The cemetery land has been deeded to the county, is presently taken care of by Mrs. Griswold, and her brother, Mr. H.
A. Engelbrecht, of 2030 Chester Blvd., Richmond, IN.
(317) 966-5799; a trust fund has been set up with the Star Bank, which will see to the care of the cemetery in the future.

Mrs. Klein of N. Centerville Road, platted and reread the stones in the summer of 1990.

Size: about 1/4 acre.

HOOVER-BULLA CEMETERY

Entrance gate

View from north

View from southwest